Dear Mr. Director:

The 16 August Wall Street Journal carried excerpts of your speech before the Metropolitan Club in New York City on 1 May in which you noted Agency analysts "... have identified 46 indicators of the consolidation of power by a Marxist-Leninist regime."

I am a professor of political science at two universities here in Tokyo and would find a list of these indicators and any other material in this area extremely valuable in my classes. Japanese students are quite naive as to Communist strategy and tactics.

Dear Sir:

I read an editorial today in the Washington Post about a speech Mr. Casey gave to the Metropolitan Club on May 1 of this year.

The excerpts from the speech seem to me to be very timely and are things which need to be said.

I would like to obtain a copy of the entire speech. Is such possible? Could you tell me whom I might contact about obtaining a copy?

Yours truly,

Henry W. Wingate

Dear Mr. Staar:

Thank you for writing the Director, for whom I am responding. The comments to which you refer in your letter of 29 May are taken from a speech given by Director Casey at the Metropolitan Club in New York on 1 May. I am enclosing a copy of the speech at your request. Thank you for your interest in the Director's comments.

If we can be of any other assistance, please let us know.

Sincerely,

NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10022

WILLIAM D. MILLER
PRESIDENT

April 2, 1985

Dear Mr. Casey:

We are delighted to learn that you will be the guest speaker at a luncheon for members and guests of The Metropolitan Club in New York City on Wednesday, May 1, 1985. An audience of approximately 300 is anticipated.

Subject to your suggestions the format will be:

- Cocktail reception at 12:00 Noon
- Lunch service at 12:20 P.M.
- Your introduction at 1:00 P.M.

Customarily, the talks of our distinguished speakers are about one half hour, followed by 15 to 20 minutes of questions and answers. A podium and microphone will be available.

We will be pleased to defray your travel expenses and if you, or you and Mrs. Casey, should wish to spend the night in New York, either before or after your talk, suitable accommodations at the Club will be provided.

We have advised our members of your scheduled appearance and they are highly enthusiastic; you may be sure of a cordial welcome.

Sincerely,

William D. Miller
